

Brazilian Timber Industry

London

01 June 2017

Venue: Embassy of Brazil in London, SW1Y 5BL

Programme

08:45-09:15 Arrival

Welcome Coffee

09:15-09:30

Welcoming Remarks

H.E. Eduardo dos Santos, Ambassador of Brazil to the UK

David Hopkins

Managing Director – UK Timber Trade Federation

09:30-09:50

Environmental public policies in Brazil including the Forest Code, the Rural Environmental Registry (CAR) and the Monitoring System of Federal Forest Concessions

Raimundo Deusdará Filho

Director of the Brazilian Forest Service, Ministry of the Environment of Brazil

09:50-10:10

Planted trees industry in Brazil: products, quality assurance and sustainability

Elizabeth de Carvalhaes

President of the Brazilian Tree Industry Association (Ibá)

10:10-10:30

Processed timber industry in Brazil: products, quality assurance and sustainability

Fabiano Sangali

Director of the Brazilian Association for Mechanically Processed Timber (ABIMCI)

10:30-10:50

BVRio Responsible Timber Exchange and its Due Diligence & Risk Assessment System

Pedro Moura Costa

President of the BVRio Institute

10:50-11:10

Q&A with all speakers of session one

11:10-11:30

Coffee break

11:30-11:45

Importing timber from Brazil to the UK: insights from a trade case

Robbie Weich

Sales & Group Compliance Officer, Tradelink Wood Products Ltd.

11:45 -12:45

Brazilian timber companies: product lines, quality assurance and sustainability certificates

Company 1: Group Sudati & Guararapes industries

Fabiano Sangali, Group Sudati & Guararapes Director

Company 2: Amata Brasil

Patrick Reydams, Operations Manager

Empresa 3: Indusparquet

Gustavo Ribeiro, Director of the Brazilian Wood Company, distributor of Indusparquet in the UK

Company 4: Green IS Timber

Lee Coates, Operations Manager

Company 5: Rebnic Madeiras

Rebecca Di Colli Oliveira, representative of Rebnic Madeiras in the UK

Company 6: Nova Lammy

Ana Valéria Totti Auferes, Founder

12:45-13:00 Q&A with all speakers of session two

13:00-14:00 Networking and light lunch at Sala Brazil

14:00-18:00 B2B meetings: Brazilian and UK companies
Meetings will be scheduled in advance. They will take place at the Embassy of Brazil